Items are made to order so please be patient when we're busy because loving goodness takes a little time...

We are not responsible for items left.

Parents, please keep young children at your table and supervised when using restrooms.

We do appreciate a heads-up with large groups.

We don't take reservations but will work with you for special occasions.

Please use headphones when using electronic devices louder than a conversation as we provide our own cheesy music.

We can provide earbuds if necessary, .

And most importantly, watch your language when kids are around!
